

Worksheet 3

Match the uses of GET in the text to the following patterns.

The number in brackets ([]) tell you how many examples there are of this type.

1. GET + noun - to talk about obtaining and buying things, taking transport and catching illnesses. [6]
2. GET + adverb - to talk about arriving or the end of a movement [3]
3. GET + object + past participle - to talk about things that others do for us [1]
4. GET + adjective - to talk about a change of state or to become [3]
5. GET + -ing + adjective - to talk about gradual development or change [2]

Multi-part Verbs (phrasal verbs) with GET

6. GET + particle - to pass an obstacle by climbing it [1]

7. GET + particle - to release yourself or someone from a place/situation [2]

8. GET + particle - to move to a higher position [1]

9. GET + particle - to enter [1]

10. GET + particle + particle + object - to re-enter [1]

11. GET + infinitive with 'to' - to achieve something [1]